EXHIBIT A

This Agreement dated this 07 day of March in 1984 A.D. at ITUNA, Saskatchewan is made by and between:

TOWN OF ITUNA

hereinafter referred to as the Municipality and:

ITUNA COMMUNITY RECREATIONAL CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

duly incorporated under the Cooperative Associations Act of the Province of Saskatchewan, herinafter referred to as the Corporation, do jointly agree as follows:

1. That the project described as follows: Ituna Arena Dressing Room Project which is located within the Municipality and is hereafter referred to as the Project is important to the enhancement of public cultural/recreational opportunities in the Municipality.
2. That the Municipality shall apply on behalf of the Corporation to the Department of Culture and Recreation for funds under the Provincial Cultural/Recreational Facilities Program to assist in constructing/renovating the Corporation's project.
3. If successful in the aforementioned grant application, the Municipality will claim the granted funds and, in turn, turn over equivalent sums to the Corporation to use only in the construction/renovation of the designated Project.
4. In return for the two above municipal commitments, the Corporation agrees to operate the Project, or cause it to be operated, in a manner which will allow access and use by the general public.
5. If for any reason the Corporation ceases to function or wishes to dispose of its assets, including the Project, it will offer the Project to the Municipality for the sum of $1; and if the Municipality fails to accept the offer, the Corporation will dispose of the Project to another non-profit corporation which is designated by the Municipality and which agrees to sign this Agreement.
